

CCC COMMITMENT LEVELS

The Coalition for Community Choice (CCC) is national alliance for not-for-profit organizations and businesses creating lifelong supports for those with intellectual/developmental disabilities (I/DD). The following describe the different levels of CCC membership and benefits. Commitment levels for established IRS recognized 501(c)(3) organizations or businesses are highlighted below. Due to the nature of our mission and urgency of our cause, individuals/family members and corporations have asked for a way to offer support. Thank you for your interest in the CCC!

ENTRY LEVEL ($500 - $999) includes:

- The CCC member monthly newsletter
- Timely updates via email alerts and other communications
- Access to CCC members-only conference calls about “best practices”
- Exclusive networking options for CCC members at national conferences
- Listing on the Autism Housing Network
- Direct access to peer-mentor organizations and professionals

GOLD LEVEL ($1,000 - $4,999) includes:

- The CCC member monthly newsletter
- Timely updates via email alerts and other communications
- Access to CCC members only conference calls about “best practices”
- Exclusive networking options for CCC members at national conferences
- Listing on the Autism Housing Network.
- An annual feature in the CCC newsletter focusing on your organization
- Direct access to peer-mentor organizations and professionals
- Technical assistance from the CCC National Coordinator for state-specific initiatives and the development of customized educational materials
- Receive support in promoting events or products
- Participation in nationwide media opportunities

PLATINUM LEVEL ($5,000 and above) includes:

- The CCC member monthly newsletter
- Timely updates via email alerts and other communications
- Access to CCC members only conference calls about “best practices”
- Exclusive networking options for CCC members at national conferences
- Listing on the Autism Housing Network
- An annual feature in the CCC newsletter focusing on your organization
- Direct access to peer-mentor organizations and professionals
- Technical assistance from the CCC National Coordinator for state-specific initiatives and the development of customized educational materials
- Receive support in promoting events or products
- Participation in nationwide media opportunities
- Prioritized consultations with the CCC National Coordinator

ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

INDIVIDUAL DONOR ($50)

A perfect way for individuals and family members to show support for the CCC cause. All donors $50 and above receive the monthly CCC newsletter. The CCC is an operating unit of Madison House Autism Foundation, a 501(c)(3) IRS recognized not-for-profit organization. All donations are fully deductible to the extent provided by law.

EMERGING CCC MEMBER ORGANIZATIONS ($150)

Designed for new organizations and/or individuals contemplating the formation of a housing project, employment/social enterprise, or professional service that supports those with I/DD and autism across the lifespan. Includes:

- CCC member monthly newsletter
- Listing on the Autism Housing Network

CORPORATE PARTNERS ($1,200 and above)

For corporations, vendors and supporters not directly affiliated with a not-for-profit, but interested in supporting the goals and vision of the CCC. Donations over $1,200 includes web page promotion and the ability to connect with CCC members.

THE OVERALL VALUE of YOUR CCC INVESTMENT

Working together, our united voice continues to influence the future of those with I/DD and autism. The Coalition for Community Choice is professionally branded and offers a robust website and social media presence promoting our collective cause.

- Information sharing through CCC Facebook page and website, newsletters, presentations, timely updates, and networking opportunities with leaders
- Influence at national and state levels by virtue of a united voice representing 116+ and growing respected, experienced organizations supporting individuals with I/DD across the country
- Coordination and mechanism for a reasoned, informed, collective voice representing the broad array of home, community, and work opportunities for those with I/DD and autism
- Professionals responsible for monitoring policy and reporting back
- CCC presence at national conferences, think tanks, task forces as determined by CCC leadership
- Preparation of materials to educate and activate advocates
- Development of infographics, blog posts, videos, etc. to raise awareness of the housing and supports crisis
- Opportunities to collaborate and connect with similar organizations and advocates across the country

Coalition for Community Choice | Summer 2015
www.CoalitionForCommunityChoice.org

